Welcome!

I want to personally congratulate you on your first step toward better health. It is my privilege to provide southwest Missouri with alternatives in natural health care. I was blessed to have parents that utilized alternative natural health care. There was no worry of side effects or addictions. By choosing alternative natural health care you are choosing to empower you, the individual, with comfort, confidence and knowledge to take control of your health and wellness. Throughout my education, I have learned that there are many ways to care for the body and I choose preventative care. We never know what future problems we avoid by taking preventative action. We are proud to care for your family from womb to tomb!

Thank you for your trust,

Dr. Nicole McCauley

TERMS OF ACCEPTANCE

Please Read Carefully

We encourage and support a shared decision making process regarding your health needs. As part of that process you have the right to be informed about the condition of your health and the recommended care and treatment to be provided to you so that you can make the decision whether or not to undergo care with full knowledge of the known risks. This information is intended to make you better informed in order that you can knowledgeably give or withhold your consent.

Wellness Care enables each individual to maximize his or her health. Health can only be maximized when the major cause of interference is removed and balance is obtained.

Health: A state of optimal physical, mental, social, and spiritual well-being, not merely the absence of disease or infirmity. Health will be maximized if all obstructions to it are removed.

Chiropractic: Chiropractic is based on the science that concerns itself with the relationship between structures (primarily the spine) and function (primarily the nervous system) and how this relationship can affect the restoration and preservation of health.

Subluxation: An imbalance of health due to nervous system interference in the spinal column, cranium and/or contiguous structures of the body. The result is a lessening of the body's inborn "innate" ability to express life at maximum potential.

Adjustment: An adjustment is the special application of forces to facilitate the body's correction of subluxation. Our method of correction is by specific adjustments of the spine, contiguous structures and soft tissues. Adjustments are made by chiropractors in order to correct or reduce spinal and extremity joint subluxations. Vertebral subluxation is a disturbance to the nervous system and is a condition where one or more vertebra in the spine is misaligned and/or does not move properly causing interference and/or irritation to the nervous system. The primary goal of chiropractic care is the removal and/or reduction of nerve interference caused by vertebral subluxation.

Regardless of what a disease is called, we do not offer to treat it, nor do we offer advice regarding treatment prescribed by others. We believe any named condition is merely a physical manifestation and not necessarily indicative of the underlying cause. Our only objective is to remove interference to the expression of your body's infinite wisdom, thus returning your body to balance. We do not offer to diagnose or treat any disease or condition. However, if during the course of examination, we encounter unusual findings, we will advise you. If you desire advice, diagnosis or treatment for those findings, we give you the option to seek the service of a health care provider who specializes in symptom-based care.

A chiropractic examination will be performed which may include spinal and physical examination, orthopedic and neurological testing, palpation, specialized instrumentation, radiological examination (x-rays), computerized electrodermal testing and laboratory testing.

The chiropractic adjustment is the application of a precise movement and/or force into the spine in order to reduce or correct vertebral subluxation(s). There are a number of different methods or techniques by which the chiropractic adjustment is delivered but are typically delivered by hand. Some may require the use of an instrument or other specialized equipment. In addition, physiotherapy or rehabilitative procedures may be included in the management protocol. Among other things, chiropractic care may reduce pain, increase mobility and improve quality of life.

In addition to the benefits of chiropractic care and treatment, one should also be aware of the existence of some risks and limitations of this care. The risks are seldom high enough to contraindicate care and all health care procedures have some risk associated with them.

Risks associated with some chiropractic care may include soreness, musculoskeletal sprain/strain, and fracture. Risks associated with physiotherapy may include the preceding as well as allergic reaction and muscle and/or joint pain. In addition there are reported cases of stroke associated with visits to medical doctors and chiropractors. Research and scientific evidence does not establish a cause and effect relationship between chiropractic care and the occurrence of stroke; rather, recent studies indicate that patients may be consulting medical doctors and chiropractors when they are in the early stages of a stroke. In essence, there is a stroke already in process. However, you are being informed of this reported association because a stroke may cause serious neurological impairment.

The Vital (CEDSA) System provides a completely non-invasive method for gaining valuable information about your body's vital functions. The primary objective of the procedure is to disclose patterns of stress and to provide feedback to help in recommending a program to restore each system and meridian (energy pattern) to balance.

I understand that the Computerized Electrodermal Stress Analysis Survey does not provide a medical diagnosis, and that my testing technician may recommend further medical testing. If you suspect that you need further medical intervention, you should consult your physician.

I give my permission for the testing technician to evaluate me on the CSA System. I understand that by doing so THE TESTING TECHNICIAN IS NOT BECOMING MY PRIMARY CARE PHYSICIAN.

I understand that the testing technician will give me information about myself based on the evaluation and the testing technician will make recommendations to improve my health based on what is found.

Any decision to follow through with the program will be my own decision, and I will not hold the testing technician or Breath of Life responsible.

I have read the above paragraphs. I have been informed of the nature and purpose of chiropractic care, the Reasonable alternative treatments have been explained, including the risks, consequences and probable effectiveness of each. I have been advised of the possible consequences if no care is received.
